OVERVIEW

Located 80km from Bandar Seri Begawan, Seria is the lifeblood of Brunei’s economy. The journey on mostly dual highway will take you about 1.5hours to reach, where along the way, you will also see the rural side of the country.

The first stop is the Seria Energy Lab, a flagship program by Brunei Shell Petroleum Company Sdn Bhd in order to support the growth of science literate in the country. The centre’s exhibition gallery showcases over 100 exhibits that cover the multi-facets of science, technology and Brunei’s hydrocarbons industry which visitors will find educational and entertaining.

The tour will also include the Billionth Barrel Monument, an arch built in 1991 to mark billionth barrel of crude oil produced in Seria, pass by Brunei Shell Petroleum headquarters and a sight of the Dutch community accommodation quarters and their recreational facilities, before reaching Kuala Belait for lunch. Free at leisure to explore this unique small town before returning to Bandar Seri Begawan. On the way back to your hotel, there is another photo opportunity at the Jerudong Park area which is only open during evening hours.
